THE NECESSITY OF BEING POSTED.
The St. Louis Republican revives a fact well worth remembering by those who hastily conclude, like the New York Herald, that because Vermont and Maine have gone for the Radicals, the whole country will follow suit. The Republican says:
"Nothing in the world, one way or the other, can be inferred from an election in Vermont or Maine, so far as the general result is concerned. Students of political statistics know this very well. In 1856, in the memorable contest between Buchanan and Fremont, Vermont and Maine both gave increased Republican majorities in September and the Fremont party yelled itself hoarse with shouts of triumph over the result, just as the Radicals are doing now. But the elections in October and November in 1856 upset all their calculations, and disappointed their hopes based on the Vermont and Maine vote, the great central States rolling up their votes for Buchanan, and overwhelming Fremont will defeat."
A similar spectacle was witnessed in 1862. It was generally believed that a revolution in public sentiment had changed the relations of parties, and that the fall elections would bring the Democrats into the ascendant. The elections came off in Vermont and Maine and the result exhibited the tide of sentiment running still in the old channel. The Radicals carried those States, and their party, from Boston to San Francisco, was crazy with delight. The New York Herald, then as now, changed around on the strength of these elections, and declared the Radicals would sweep every State, but in October and November the Radicals were overwhelmingly beaten from New York to Missouri.

So will it be again this year. Everybody feels that a revelation in public sentiment is going on—that the relations of parties are changing—and that the elections in October and November will show different results from those of the past few years.

THE FATE OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.
We have assurances from some reverend gentlemen who recently visited Mr. Davis in prison that his health is so far affected that he cannot live three months whether free or captive.—These gentlemen, it appears, have appealed to the President for his release. Various accounts have been circulated, from time to time, as to the condition of Mr. Davis' health—some representing it as unusually good, others as most precarious; but this is the first time that a definite limit has been set down to his existence. However, whether these conflicting reports be true on one side or the other is not the point. The question is, who is responsible for the detention of Davis in Fortress Monroe? Whose fault is it that he has not been tried long ago, and his case disposed of, either by his conviction or acquittal? If he is to be detained for years until he perishes in prison, while the ends of justice are left unreserved, who shall bear the blame?

It is said that the President says it is the fault of Congress. Congress charges the President with the delay, and others again put the blame upon Chief Justice Chase. It is time that this matter should be settled in some way. It is a disgrace to our system of jurisprudence that the case of Jeff Davis should be allowed to remain in abeyance all this time. If he is amenable to the law let him have the benefit of the law. If there is any doubt as to the probability of his conviction, why detain him in prison? We adhere to our first impressions, that the ends of justice would be best subserved and the dignity of the nation best sustained by opening the doors of Fortress Monroe and letting go whither-ever he will. At any rate, let his case be dealt with promptly.

The country is about as weary of the subject as the prisoner is of his captivity.
New York Herald, 21st inst.

TEXAS REJECTS THE AMENDMENT.
The Texas Legislature, through the action of the Committee on Federal Relations, has respectfully returned to the Government the constitutional amendment, declining its further consideration. The ground assigned is thus expressed in the report:
Article thirteen, sections one and two have the honor to report as follows:
The people of Texas, in Convention assembled, have already, by their ordinance, acknowledged the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States, in which Constitution the above-named article thirteen is embraced, as part of the same; the courts of law so hold and administer said article thirteen.

The Legislature has authority in this matter; any action on the same would be superfluous, if not intrusive. The committee, therefore, ask to be excused from the further consideration of the same; and they herewith respectfully return the communication of the Honorable the Secretary of State of the United States.

A Day at Fortress Monroes.
Visit of an old Mississippi Friend to Jefferson Davis—His Sketch of the Prison and the Prisoner.
[From the Natchez (Miss.) Courier, Aug. 22.]
The editor of this paper spent Friday the 7th instant, at Fortress Monroe, and the greater part of the day with its illustrious State prisoner. He found but little difficulty in obtaining permission to see Mr. Davis, and begs to express to Col. Curry, Chief Commissary of the District and Department, and whose headquarters are at the Fortress, his warm thanks for the civilities and kindness shown him.

Mr. Davis' prison room at night is furnished with an iron camp bedstead, as short and narrow as regulations can provide. He has a table, a chair, a shelf for books, a curtain in the niche between two iron grates, by the aid of which he is enabled to take a salt water bath. These are luxuries. When first confined, he had a camp bedstead, a chair with one leg shorter than the other three—ingeniously constructed so as to give the greatest amount of torture in the least possible quantity of time and space—a table so low and so small that to call it a table were ridiculous—a basin and a pitcher. He received after a long time two tumbler; one of them, the guard borrowed and never returned; the other was broken, and not replaced for many days. He was not allowed the use of knife and fork. Even when his body was ulcerated by long confinement, the same fingers that dressed his sores, had to tear the miserable meat that was dolefully fed out by jailer Miles to the great State Prisoner of the United States! Of course from pure disgust, Jefferson Davis had to go without the food that common humanity would have given to a felon.

Thank God, these times are past! The tiger's thirst for blood has been assuaged, or perhaps the animal has been sent to Boston for safe-keeping for the present!

Mr. Davis' health is feeble—precarious in the extreme. Long confinement and the treatment he received during the first year of his horrible incarceration, have told terribly upon his slender frame. He was never a man of muscle. The intellectual ever predominated over the material. He is one of those gifted intellectual men, born only once in a century, whose brain is thought, and whose mouth is eloquence. In his prison dungeon, he can almost be spoken of as a hero of the past; and his acts, principles and ambitions have an historical and heroic interest. As a State Prisoner of the great Empire of the United States, he is surrounded with more personal interest than any other man can possibly be. The iron mask of the Bastille was but a curiosity. The State Prisoner of the United States is a wonder and an object of glory!

It would be difficult for an old friend of Mr. Davis to recognize him, were he not presented to him as the great State Prisoner! Emaciated to the extreme, almost a walking skeleton, little left but a great and stately form, a gray beard covering that peculiar style of features and of mouth, which in other days has given life and thought to a nation, an eye undimmed and full of the fire of intellect, he yet might pass upon our streets, unknown to former friends. His physical condition is such, that in walking he is obliged to use a cane. The writer does not know what a skeleton weighs. Add ten pounds to any medical man's report on the subject, and Mr. Davis' weight can be ascertained. But, yet he is reliant on his own integrity and on the God whose favor and mercy, with beautiful simplicity, he asks at more hours than the imprisoned Daniel did.

Mr. Davis, confined as he is, will not live long. Emaciated in the extreme, without appetite and without hope, he is gradually going down to the long home where a million of manly and womanly tears will follow him. The first chill, the first attack of any sharp disease, will carry him away to the great Judge who ruleth over all. Tempered by the wind that blows over Fortress Monroe! May her breathings be sweet, and her wings soft!

Mr. Davis is yet denied the use of pen, ink or paper. He violates the parole that allows him a walk inside the Fortress, if he even gives his autograph. During the day, he has little except as prisoner, to complain of. During the night, he has grated doors, guards and an officer, to watch every time he turns over in bed, or changes the position of his pillow.
He is hopeless for himself. He sees not, nor can any one see for him why he is kept in the anomalous condition of a State Prisoner.
In all probability, Mr. Davis will never see our people again. He is an individual victim, whose life by confinement will be sacrificed to solve a great political embarrassment. Like the man who drew the elephant at the lottery, the Government knows not what to do with him, should not be left, less remorseless than a vulture, consign him to a tomb which will be a blessing to his people. No matter what Mr. Davis's political views may have been, and certainly the writer of this article was, up to 1861, as much opposed to them as any Southern man living, that illustrious State Prisoner now lives and will die, if longer confined in Fortress Monroe, as the vicarious representative of a people who loved him in manhood, trusted him in power, and now turn their eyes in sorrow upon him as one suffering unjustly for their deeds.

It is useless to speculate as to the future of Mr. Davis. Unless the great hand of Mercy soon intervenes, the silent and cold hand of Death will shortly relieve Mr. Seward and Mr. Stanton from further trouble in the matter. Speaking of his hopeless condition and of what he has endured, almost the last words of the illustrious prisoner were "would that I could be the conductor, by which the lightning of vengeance could be warded off our dear people, I could then live or die here contented."

The subject is too sorrowful to write more about. I append my own name to this statement, to assure responsibility for its authorship.

Mr. A. W. Bell, of the firm of SIDES & BELL, 41 North Water Street, Mobile, Ala., is our authorized Agent, to contract, receive and receipt for subscription and advertising for the Republican.

We have placed a number of accounts in the hands of Capt. J. M. Anderson, for which he is authorized to receipt. Our friends will confer a special favor by settling with him whenever opportunity is offered.

Will not our patrons avail themselves of the opportunity afforded during court week, to settle their subscriptions? We think that many of them make a mistaken estimate of the time for which they owe, and have also overlooked the fact, that our published terms have been $3.00 a year in advance since the first of January last.

Gen. John H. Forney is now in this place, and will probably remain several weeks, prepared to make arrangements for liberal advances, and paying tax on Cotton consigned to Henry Goldthwaite of Selma, and Tarleton, Ledyard & Co. of Mobile.

For particulars see bills, which contain the most liberal propositions.

SEEK advertisement of Lands for sale by W. B. Adams, Administrator, R. G. Ragan, Executor and I. N. Towns, Executor.

We call attention to the change made in the card of Reid & Bell, Mobile, Ala. Mr. Reid having recently withdrawn to engage in another business, Mr. Sides of Selma takes his place, and the firm now stands Sides & Bell. We can recommend this firm as heartily as before, being personally acquainted with Mr. Sides the new member, and knowing as we do that he brings to the firm first class business qualifications, and all the courtesy and integrity which goes to make up the thorough business man and gentleman. All business entrusted to them will receive prompt attention.

Our Circuit Court has been in session since Monday last, Hon. W. S. Mead, presiding, and J. H. Caldwell, Solicitor. Judge Mead has been engaged on the bench for a greater length of time, we believe, than any other Judge now on duty in the State, and consequently brings to his aid in the faithful discharge of his duties, experience as well as eminent ability. We learn that the officers of the Court regard him as one of the best Judges in the State. He tells parties to come to trial or pay costs, and has consequently already cleared the docket of a number of long litigated cases.

The State docket will be taken up on Monday next, and there will probably be sufficient business to engage the Court through the week.

Our new Sheriff, S. D. McClellan, Esq., although this is his first Court, has progressed smoothly and satisfactorily in the discharge of his duties.

We invite attention to the advertisement of F. L. & R. A. Johnson, Wholesale Grocers, and dealers in Western Produce and Foreign Liquors. New Orleans being our best and most convenient Grocery market, our friends will find this house among the best in the City.

Our old fellow-citizen, W. L. Cunningham, (son of Wm. Cunningham, sr. dec.) formerly near Oxford, is Agent of this house, acting as salesman, where his many friends and acquaintances will find the right man in the right place again. He is emphatically the people's friend. Mr. C. has a general acquaintance in this State, as also in most of the Southern States. His friends favoring him with their patronage, will be served in the most mercantile style and favorable terms. He was once engaged in business at Wallace's near Harpersville, Ala., and for several years at Wetumpka, when that city was itself.

When visiting, or ordering Groceries from New Orleans, don't forget the firm of F. L. & R. A. Johnson.

Our readers will find the business card of Woolsey, Goodrich & Co. of Selma, renewed in this paper, and also that of Woolsey, Walker & Co. of Mobile. For experience, business capacity, energy and promptitude, as well as extensive business arrangements and facilities, by which they can promote the interest of their patrons, our friends will find this house unsurpassed, and in every way worthy of their confidence and patronage.

If you wish to purchase Cotton yarns, at wholesale or retail, of superior quality, at Factory Prices, freight, &c. only added, call on E. L. Woodward, whose advertisement see in this paper.

THE WAY TO HEAD THE YANKEES.—The late Radical disunion Congress, did not tax manufactures of Cotton, because it is chiefly manufactured in the North; but they did tax raw Cotton three cents per pound, because it is produced in the South. Now, let the people of the South manufacture the cotton at home. They will thereby save the transportation to the North, the three cents tax, and come in advantageous competition with the Northern manufacturers—thus turning the edge of the yankee sword against themselves, and taxation into protection.

MEXICO.—A Paris letter writer proposes as a solution of the Mexican difficulty that France and the United States unite in a joint protectorate of that country, in which the payment of the debt due to each country, shall be guaranteed; and a Prince or President be sent from France or the United States to govern it. Should this scheme be entered into we venture that the French Emperor will find himself worse cheated in the end, than when he imported the Dutch Prince Maximilian, to be emperor of Mexico.

EMIGRATION NORTH AND SOUTH.—It was supposed by many, when the war closed, that there would be a considerable emigration from the North and West to the Southern States. But it appears from late statistics of emigration that the reverse has been the case; there having been a greater emigration from than to the South, 29,000 Southerners having emigrated to city of New York alone. All this has been the result of the uncertain, unsettled and threatening policy of the Radical disunion party which has thus far proven a great injury to the whole country, and seems rapidly tending to overwhelm it in universal revolution and ruin. The splendid climate, fertile soil, boundless mineral resources and water power, and rich agricultural products of the South, have not yet been sufficient to overcome the natural fear to emigrate to a region where there is uncertainty of tenure in property or investment. A few months however, will either dispel these fears, or prove that there is as much uncertainty in the North as the South.

THE SUPPER at the Baptist Church, which came off on Tuesday night according to our announcement of last week, was a perfect success.

The table groined under a profusion of every substantial and delicate, and was arranged with as nice affect as the ingenuity of ladies of taste could suggest. The youth and beauty of our village (which by the way can boast of more beauty than any other place South) were cut almost en masse and with them the pleasure-winged hour flew so rapidly, that the time for dispersion had arrived ere any were aware the hour was late, and far too soon for the happy young who people seemed to enjoy the evening so pleasantly.

We felt that we were safe last week in promising that it should come up to expectation, and all present will testify that the lady managers more than fulfilled our promise in the harmonious arrangement and splendid liberality of the affair.

A FEW LINES BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

SANTA ANNA SETTLED ON ST. PETERS ISLAND.

FENIAN SYMPATHIES WITH HIM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Cotton is unsettled—there are no sales to-day.

The following has been received by the cable from Newfoundland:

The lines have been prostrated by heavy gales, and after the following short report them again out of order:

MARSHFIELD, Sept. 24.—A great meeting of the friends of Reform is being held here to-day. Bright will be among the speakers.

FLORENCE, Sept. 24.—The band of Brigands who have been rioting near Palisano, for the past few days, have been routed by the military.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Herald says that General Santa Anna has located his headquarters on Staten Island, and has opened a regular business Bureau for the transaction of matters looking to the delivery of Mexico from the French authorities. He is said to be constantly occupied with various people on that subject, and has enlisted the sympathies of the Fenian Brotherhood. The leaders are educating the Irish to that belief. It is further reported that Santa Anna will soon return to St. Thomas.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 2.—Cotton has again advanced. Sales 2,600 bales to-day. Middlings 39 to 40c.

The Conservatives and the Soldiers have a row in Ohio—The latter whipped.

The Cincinnati Gazette, a Radical paper, gives the following account of a disturbance at Warren, in Ohio, while Mr. Vallandigham was speaking there some days ago.

When the disturbance ceased, Vallandigham said, much excited, "I have borne that insult and outrage for twenty minutes; I don't intend to submit to it any longer; at the same time shaking his fist in the direction of the shouting. 'If there are not enough Democrats in the crowd,' he continued, 'to take these men and clean them out. I will not speak another word.' Cries of 'Move them!' 'Kick them out!' &c. arose on all sides, and for a few minutes there was some sharp fighting, ending, in a complete rout of the soldier-boys, as they proved to be.

Vallandigham resumed, saying he had never, except twice before, advised his friends to resist molestation of their meetings. He had said if Democrats disturbed Republican meetings, they deserved to be punished on the spot; and the rule ought to work both ways.

The boys it seems, had only retired for a council of war; for in fifteen minutes they returned and renewed their offensive demonstrations. Again they were driven back, and again returned, during which maneuvering many were knocked down and dragged out, in many cases their own men suffering as badly as the soldiers, for no one could tell friends from foe. Only one pistol shot was fired, by whom is not known. Fortunately no one was killed.

WORK AND ITS WAGES.—We may often gain wisdom from our enemies. We learn that Massachusetts has vastly augmented the amount of her industrial products during the last decade. Although her population increased only at the rate of 3 per cent., her manufactures exhibit an increase of 75 per cent. The sum total of her industrial products in 1845 was $124,000,000; in 1855 it was $295,000,000; while in 1865 it reached the extraordinary result of $517,000,000. Yet Massachusetts contributed as many men and as much money to the war for the Federal side as any other State. When the struggle closed, the credit to her on the books of the war office was immense.

The secret of the success of Massachusetts is explained by the New York Tribune. She works. Rich and poor alike honor labor in precept and practice.—Hence her industries are productive and diversified, for universal labor renders manifold forms of it inevitable.

A like condition of sentiment in the South would give us such prosperity as has never filled the dreams of those philosophers whose logic commenced and closed with "cotton." We need intelligent labor—a working, energetic population, with moral character sufficient to inspire honesty, and pride enough to stimulate a faithful labor. We must come to fully respect honest toil without regarding it either a badge of dishonor or undignified. If we make idleness thoroughly disreputable and affix to it the seal of criminality, the South will soon be made independent in every desirable particular.

[Raleigh Progress]

DEATH OF HOWELL ROSE, OF COOSA.—This old citizen of Coosa, so well known for his wealth, and his eccentricities, died last week at his log cabin in Coosa county, Alabama. By hoarding his means for many years he had been enabled to accumulate a property of nearly $300,000, all of which passes by his death to the use of his wife for life. We learn that his executors, our worthy fellow citizens, Messrs. Trimble, Hatchett and Saxon, were not forgotten in his will, left a body of land, embracing several thousand acres, to be divided among his negroes whom he intended to manumit. But in consequence of the violence which he experienced at the hands of the enemy, he changed his will, and committed them to the Freedmen's Bureau!

After the surrender, a body of Yankees went to the old man's house in search of gold, and threatened to hang him unless he produced it. The old man coolly told them to hang, and that they would find his pretty tough old neck. They hung him up three times, but produced no confession.

No man of the neighborhood was probably more extensively known than Howell Rose.—Montgomery Mail 27th.

Ex-Secretary Harlan Perpetrates a Fraud.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The Union charges fraud on ex-Secretary Harlan in the matter of 800,000 acres of reserve land in Kansas, belonging to the Cherokee Indians which were sold to the Connecticut Emigration Company for $1 per acre, payable in nine years, in installments. The Cherokees paid a half a million in gold for these lands thirty-one years ago, and the Union says they are worth three or four millions now. The sale was made by Harlan the day before he left the Interior Department.

The Richmond correspondent of the Danville Register tells the following anecdote about General "Alleghany" Johnston, on the march to Bristol Station in the fall of 1863. The General was riding along the road, and perceiving one of his men up a persimmon tree, hollowed out to him:

"I say there, what are you doing up there? Why ain't you with your regiment?"

"I am getting' simmons, I am," replied the soldier.

"Persimmons, thunder! they are not ripe yet.—They are not fit to eat."

"Yes, but General," persisted the Confed., "I'm trying to draw my stomach up to suit the size of my rati us. If it stays as it is now I shall starve."

The General had nothing further to say, but rode on.

IN THE COURTS.—The District Attorney for the United States Courts of Kentucky, at Louisville, on Thursday last entered a nolle prosequi in three hundred and thirty-nine cases for treason against the United States, and fifty-six cases of misdemeanor, for giving aid and comfort to those engaged in rebellion. This is disposing of the treason business with reasonable celerity.

The Montgomery Advertiser is informed that Attorney General Sanford has advised the Comptroller General that Tax Collectors of this State are not required to affix the two-cent Revenue stamps on their receipts to the tax payers.

Boiling Food for Hogs.

Corn is scarce, and as the season for fattening hogs is approaching, we cannot do our planters and farmers a greater service than to give them a piece of advice that will save them thousands and by a very little addition to their present amount of labor. It is to boil all food before giving it to their fattening hogs. No man who has made the experiment will ever abandon the practice.

A friend of ours, in Greene county, a year ago, weighed out two equal quantities of live pork, kept them in adjoining pens and treated them in all respects the same, except that he fed one pen on raw food and the other on exactly the same amount and quality of food boiled. At killing time, those fed on boiled food weighed just 33 per cent. more than their neighbors.

Henry Ellsworth made some extensive experiments in the same thing, and his statement is that thirty pounds of raw corn makes as much pork as thirteen pounds of boiled corn.

Signs of War in Europe.—A writer in the National Intelligencer thinks the resignation of Lord Cowley, English Ambassador to France, taking place simultaneously with that of M. Drouyn de Lhuys, the Emperor's Foreign Minister affords to a certain degree moral evidence of the intention of his Majesty to change his peaceful policy to one of war towards Prussia.—Lord Cowley being an old personal friend of his Majesty, would not have resigned if he had not been urged by the most serious political motives, and there is every reason to suppose that he has been charged by Lord Derby to oppose a war policy that might sow seeds of violence, entangle Great Britain at a time when her intestine commotions make foreign and anti-German wars most undesirable.

Joe Holt.
This miserable scoundrel and suborner of witnesses to condemn Jefferson Davis with complicity in the murder of Abraham Lincoln, has the unblushing effrontery to plead in the extenuation of his infamous plot to shed the blood of the noble and high spirited "live prisoner," that he was imposed upon. Miserable hypocrite! did he not write to his accomplice in villany, "Do your work thoroughly?" Did he not know that the money he paid the contemptible perjurer and scoundrel, Conover, was the price for the blood of Jefferson Davis? People have sought notoriety in various ways, but Joe Holt, the suborner, and murderer of Mrs. Surratt, has in ignominy surpassed the youth who fired the temple of Diana. The name of the judge advocate who caused the blackest spot that ever was written in American history, may have been imposed on, but the cool, calm and deliberate murder of an innocent woman, will mark him as the blackest fiend of infamy throughout all time.

Joe Holt, the miserable creature! Can he go to sleep without dreaming of the innocence of Mrs. Surratt? Can he walk the streets in day time without the ghost of his victim telling him, "You are a murderer!"
Huntsville Independent.

THE COTTON TAX.
Congress meets on the first Monday in December. If it should undergo a change of constituent elements, the ruinous cotton tax law may be repealed. It will then be known how utter have been the failure of crops, and how very poor are the people of the South. The Journal of Commerce says:
The inexpediency of the excise tax of three cents per pound on cotton is now evident enough from the increased cultivation we hear of in Brazil, India and Egypt.
The injustice of it is equally plain, because cotton is declared from the privilege of exportation to foreign countries in bond and free of duty, which is enjoyed by breadstuffs, petroleum and tobacco.

And the oppressiveness of it is more striking than ever, since it has become probable that the product of cotton per acre planted, and lands employed, will be very short. The propriety of repealing the laws will force itself even upon Commissioner Wells, Secretary McCulloch, and the House of Representatives at the next meeting of Congress in December.

The object of the law seems to have been to create offices for a regiment of what old Cobbet used to call tax-eaters. And if they had regard to the interest of the planters, they might have extended the inland boulding for a term of six months, to give Congress time to alter or repeal the law.
The law contemplates a duty of three cents on all cotton, whether exported to foreign countries or consumed in the United States, except such old cotton as is only liable to the old duty of two cents.

How easy, then, it would have been to instruct the custom houses to require proof of the tax having been paid before allowing a foreign clearance of the ship and cargo, and to require a bond from the coastwise vessel not to land the cargo in a foreign country. As to home consumption, let the spinner pay the tax before he takes the cotton into his mill.

The New York Times of the 21st inst says that there is at this time an unprecedented influx into that city of Southerners some with pleasure in a more favored region than their own that prosperity which was almost destroyed by the war.

The Kingston E. Tennessean states that quite a number of emigrants are daily passing through that town. There were eight or ten families passed there on Thursday 19th, from Washington county, Tenn., en route for Missouri and Texas.

Tennessee Conservative Triumph.
The election in Davidson county last Saturday for a member to the Legislature, resulted in the choice of M. M. Brien, conservative, by a large majority over his competitor of the Brownlow school. An election for Municipal officers was held in Nashville on the same day, which resulted in the choice of the entire conservative ticket by large majority. The Union & American says:
We have space only to congratulate the Conservatives party on the signal and conclusive triumph it has achieved, and the city on the fortunate selection of its municipal guardians for the coming year.

A young man in Indianapolis, named Oliver B. Gilkey, shot and killed his room mate, Leodius Johnson, whom he took to be a burglar, on last Saturday night. The young men were sleeping together, and Mr. Johnson arose for some purpose without awaking his companion, and on his return the fatal mistake occurred.

AWFUL CALAMITY.
Loss of Steamship Evening Star
Nearly Three Hundred Lives Lost.
[From the New Orleans Picayune, 5th.]
The fierce storm that swept the Gulf stream and the Atlantic coast of the Southern States last week, and the giant power of which would appear to have destroyed or disabled at least five or six steamers, has, in the loss of the splendid and favorite steamship Evening Star, Capt. Knabb, with nearly three hundred persons struck a heart-rending blow to many a family circle in this country and in Europe, which the appalling and sudden nature of the catastrophe only tends to make more distressing.

The Evening Star left New York on the 20th ult., and was due here on Sunday.—The Fung Shuey, which left on the same day with the Evening Star, got in on Sunday evening. The steamship Victor, which left the same day, is now in the river.
The gale which caused this frightful disaster would appear to have commenced on the 2d inst.
The unfortunate vessel is telegraphically described as having only six boats with which to save a large number of lives. Two of these boats are thought to have been totally swamped; that the people in two others, twenty-eight in number, were all saved except Capt. Knapp and two boats still remain unaccounted for. It is possible they may yet be heard from, as the disaster took place in the track of so many vessels, with many more saved from the foundered ship.

[From the Mobile Register and Advertiser, 6th.]
The terrible disaster to the steamship Evening Star, which left New York for New Orleans with 250 passengers and a crew of 110, was being reported to us by telegraph yesterday. From the telegraphic dispatch which appeared in our paper yesterday, it appears that only five of the crew and one passenger were saved out of three hundred souls. It is supposed that our fellow-citizen, Mr. Nearing, one of the proprietors of the State House, with forty-seven others, that institution, were on the ill-fated steamer. Dispatches were sent to New York yesterday to ascertain if he had been saved, as was believed on the Evening Star, but no response was received to the point of closing our column. It is stated by Mr. Charlot, the great Spanish circus now exhibiting in our city, that forty of his performers took passage on the Evening Star, and are lost. The celebrated French Opera Troupe were also looked for passage to New Orleans in this steamer, and their many dear friends in that city lament their loss. These are many of our merchants now in New York, purchasing their winter stocks, and their friends look for them by every boat, as their stay has been protracted. The loss of the steamer, with three hundred souls, is indeed terrible, and has thrown a gloom over our city. The anxiety and surprise of many of our citizens yesterday was painful to witness, and we need not all the shocking documentation from those who are now mourning their lost friends and relatives. As yet we have not any certain news, and the best position from a New Orleans correspondent should not be taken as correct. Let us calmly wait the facts, and exclaim, "God's will, not mine, be done."
(From the N. O. Times of the 9th.)

The gale has been a fearful one, and many other calamities have taken place in addition to the loss of the Evening Star.
In turning to the list of passengers we find recorded therein the names of some of our best citizens, and members of the families of others. In this list we may enumerate the names of Gen. H. A. Pattery, lady and child; Miss Shoo, daughter of Thomas Shoo, Esq., President of the Southern Mutual Insurance Company; Mrs. John L. Adams and daughter, Mrs. W. D. Foster and wife, (firm of Wake & Foster) Mrs. Spangenberg, (late Miss Boutigny) and wife of one of our wealthiest business men; J. H. Bussanett, George Hillman, and others. We tender our sympathies to all afflicted by this calamity.

The Public Debt of Conquered Provinces.
[From the National Intelligencer.]
The present leaders of the Radical faction—Sewards, Butler, Brown, &c.—are endeavoring to impose upon this country the burden of the immense debt of the conquered provinces. It is an obligation that we cannot assume without wiping out our own national debt. But by the law of nations, we become responsible for all the obligations of "provinces" that we "conquer," or of foreign States which we may annex.

When we annexed Texas as a foreign province we admitted and assumed her debt, and we took possession of her resources, and in consideration of her obligations to creditors, left her public lands and gave her also ten millions of dollars.
As soon as we annex Mexico, we must, of course, assume the payment of her debt, including the treaty debt to France. We take and absorb all her revenues—as the Radicals propose to do with the Southern States—and of course become responsible for her debt. We protest against the Stevens Butler plan of treating the Southern States as conquered provinces, on this as well as on other grounds—Our people of this and of the next generation will be sufficiently task d, if not overtasked, to pay our own national debt, without adding to it the burden of the debt of any foreign "provinces" that we may have "conquered" or may conquer.
We hardly expected so soon to witness the verification of Wendell Phillips' declaration, that the Northern politicians and demagogues would be bribed to assume the rebel debt, and divide the spoils with the rebels. But General Butler and Mr. Thaddeus Stevens—both eminent leaders of the Radical faction—have declared that the Southern States shall be "treated as conquered provinces." This is property, both public and private, is to be confiscated and sold for the benefit of the conquerors.—But the avails of the sale in a country where there is no money and no purchaser would be insignificant, and would not begin to pay a year's interest on the debt of the subject States, which we would thus assume. The Stevens Butler financiering would thus be a signal failure so far as the interests of the National Government may be concerned.
But supposing that the Radical leaders should fail to carry out their plan for making the conquered provinces responsible for the rebel debt, foreign and domestic, they have not an equally effective scheme for the purpose, by so continuing affairs in the subject States to render or occur all in the conquered territory a very heavy burden to the nation. Of the expense of maintaining large armies and a host of civil officers in a distant, hostile, and desolated country, we have had some experience, but only for four or five years.
The expenditure which we are to try under the plan of Stevens and Butler will continue for an indefinite series of years. If this should not increase our national debt up to the point of explosion, it would not be the fault of effort on the part of the Radical leaders, who are bent upon the accomplishment of that object, in some way or other.

The Radical madness leads to speedy destruction of our public credit. This is seen and deprecated by all sound and self-respecting capitalists. Hence it is that in New York we find such men as Astor, Vanderbilt, Stewart, Belmont, Gallaher, and others, zealously laboring for the maintenance of the President's policy of restoration.
The North and the South.

The New York Commercial Advertiser (Republican) professes to have discovered a "very perceptible change" for the better in sentiment and temper going on through the late insurgent States. That "change" is in the direction of that condition of affairs which immediately succeeded the termination of the war, when "our vanquished foes were submissive, tractable and willing, may, glad to accede to any terms which should guarantee them life." The spirit that dictated this article affords both the theme and the key for the discussion and elucidation of the whole question at issue between the North, holding the power of the Government, and the South, lately making an unsuccessful war for independence without the Government. There is no change let us inform our New York contemporary, at the South, which has not been directly wrought by the action of the commanding power in the Government of the North. Our views, our sentiments, and our purposes of duty, are the same now as they were when the Confederate Generals surrendered their armies. The only change that we of the South have bitterly experienced, is in our estimate of the generous magnanimity that became the conquering power at the North. In this, we have all been sadly disappointed. We were disposed to give the North credit not only for more magnanimity, but for more worldly wisdom and statesmanlike policy. The capitulation of all the Southern Generals clearly implied that armed resistance to the Government was at an end, the rights of the insurgent States would be respected and the Constitution of the United States would extend over the whole Federal Union, as the common law of the land. Superadded to that, the President of the United States, as the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, prescribed other special conditions of restoration, Nov. 1 and starting as they were, they were promptly acceded to by State after State in legislative assembly. This done, we were invited to re-organize our State government and send our Senator and Representatives to Congress. Every condition, to the dotting of an "i," was complied with. But it resulted that the will of Congress and the apparent sentiment of the Northern people made all this "submissive and tractable" conduct of the Southern people unavailing. Faith was broken with us. The promises which were the inducements to our great concessions were not kept, and we found ourselves with a part signed and sealed and kept on one side, broken on the other. The Congress, apparently supported by the popular voice at the polls, demanded yet more, and this more is expressed in the propositions for a so-called Constitutional Amendment. And now the South is called upon to accept and ratify these amendments as the Northern ultimatum are presented without any guarantees that if accepted, the price of their acceptance will be paid by the North. So far from it, the leading journals and public men on the Radical side distinctly declare that the adoption of the amendments by the South will not fill the measure of Northern exaction or entitle it to representation at Washington. Go further and admit that it was enough, there stands the Congressional test oath, which must forever exclude from his seat in Congress every Southern man who is in the least fit to represent this people.

What motive then is there for the Southern legislatures to adopt these amendments as a part of the organic law of the land? If it were an open question, whether or not, for the sake of adjustment, peace and restoration, it were better to submit to present injustice and wrong, it might be debatable. But it is not an open question. The only question is, shall we "eat dirt" at Radical bidding for nothing—without hope of compensation, or advantage, present or prospective? The proposition admits of but one answer. We cannot surrender our constitutional representative power in the councils of the Nation, without an equivalent, and we can, under no circumstances, disgrace our honorable record as a belligerent people, and forfeit our right to belong to the American race, by consenting to a proscribed list of our noblest and best citizens, to be offered up as a sacrifice for our benefit. Helpless as we confess ourselves to be, in the resistance of injustice, we yet have the part left us of a noble endurance and fortitude. Let ungenerous power put upon us whatever its own conscience and its reputation before the civilized world will permit it to put upon us; yet, we have at least the privilege of refusing to dishonor ourselves. We can take the blows which conquering cowardice may choose to inflict upon a disarmed foe, and though quivering in the flesh under the infliction, there is no human power to compel us to lash ourselves with the scorpion thongs of self-disgrace, or to kiss and fawn upon the hand that disgraces itself in attempting to debase us.

The New York paper, we repeat, is mistaken in the Southern sentiment. Indeed, the Northern people are as blind and ignorant of that sentiment as if they lived on the opposite side of the globe. Knowledge and enlightenment on this subject is all that is wanted to bring the people of the two sections together in a fraternal reunion upon the platform of government established by their common fathers. But the greed of power, the lusts of party, the passions of fanatics and the false lights of an unscrupulous press are long with their prodigious engineering of influence to darken and harden the minds of the Northern people, and to make them believe that there is real danger to the government in giving Southern "Rebels" a voice in its administration. Bring the two people face to face, in a fair and candid negotiation for reunion, and exclude the hired liars and slanderers of the South, and a treaty would be the result in a single day. But the harpies of Party and Fanaticism are present in great flocks to mar and pollute the banquet of generous reconciliation, and a disintegrated Government is drifting without rudder or compass, God only knows where.

Mobile Advertiser.
Hemmett Patterson.—Who ever saw a Hebrew begging bread? There are none. We are informed by an old resident—one who has lived in Mobile for forty years, and has served many of them in high official capacity, that among the many who have applied for public charity, he is yet to see the first son of Abraham wanting the necessities of life.

CHICKERING PROSPECTS IN ILLINOIS.
The Chicago Times thinks Illinois will send eight, and perhaps nine representatives to the next Congress who support the President's policy. The Radicals likely to be displaced are Baker, Kuykendall, Harding, Brouwer and Calum.

DISTRIBUTIONS.

We would call attention to the opinion of one of the leading papers of Canada on this subject:

Most of our readers have no doubt read some of the numerous advertisements of Gift Enterprises, Gift Concerns, &c., which appear from time to time in the public prints, offering most tempting bargains to those who will patronize them. In most cases these are genuine humbugs. But there are a few respectable firms who do business in this manner, and they do it as a means of increasing their wholesale business, and not to make money. From such firms, it is true, handsome and valuable articles are procured for a very small sum, and what is more important, no one is ever cheated. Every one gets good value for his dollar, because, as we have stated, it is intended to act as an advertisement to increase their ordinary business.

We have seen numbers of prizes sent out in this way by SHERMAN, WATSON & COMPANY, of Nassau street, N. Y., and there is no doubt that some of the articles are worth eight or ten times the money paid for them, while we have not seen or heard of a single article which was not fully worth the dollar which it cost. But this is only one of the exceptions of this rule, for as a general thing the parties engaged in this business are nothing but clever swindlers.

(Saturday Reader, Montreal, C. E., Jan. 13, '06)

MANUFACTURES IN THE SOUTH. There is a very earnest disposition in the South to engage in manufacturing. If the tide of capital should set in this direction, New England will probably, after a while, regret the part that it took in the late war, and especially the charitable expressions which are daily enunciated by its leading men. For it is not to be denied that here within these fertile States the production of what has made New England the wealthiest part of the world, and perhaps the most insolent part of it.

The coal strata of the States have not yet been developed; and iron better than any that comes from Sweden or elsewhere, lies about our mineral regions—lying there dead, and awaiting enterprising men who can bring it to life.

During the Confederacy war this iron was tested thoroughly, and experts declared then, and with repeat their commendation, that there is no iron in the world superior to that which is here in Alabama.

Well, the coal lies by the side of the iron; and there are vast forests of trees that may be made useful in the smelting of it.

Then there are streams of water every where that are cheaper than steam, and these may be conserved for the purpose of making anything that machinery can make. And these streams are contiguous to the cotton fields, and the freedman can carry his cotton from the gin to the machine.

This certainly gives us a superiority over the cotton mills of New England. In the States of that blessed part of creation there is no cotton grown. There is no cotton grown. There they have not much wood; and they have to import their coal. We have wood, coal, water in abundance, and cotton at our doors. Why not use these superabundant values, and make more cheaply than they make what finds in every part of the world eager customers.

We have been fools. We know this; but we are incorrigible. If the discipline that we have passed through has not left us some wisdom.—Mobile Tribune.

Next month, the great State of New York will vote. We do not predict that the Radicals will be defeated; but we have hopes that such will be the result. Hoffman is making a splendid canvass. The Democracy of New York City per se is unparalleled majorities—from 4,000 to 60,000—and it would not be surprising if there the barrier should be set up against the encroachments of Radical despotism. We observe that Thurlow Weed has declared in favor of the Democratic ticket. It is a good sign. That veteran and sagacious politician is weather-wise as to the mutations of popular opinion. He knows which way the wind blows without even a straw to show him the direction. At all events, he could not risk his reputation by committing his fortunes to a doomed and sinking party. There are still some bright places in the sky. Selma Times.

COOSA & TENNESSEE RIVERS RAILROAD.—This road, extending from Gadsden to Gunter's Landing a distance of thirty-three miles, and which was nearly all graded before the war, has recently been put in way of early completion in the following manner:

A Pennsylvania Company agrees to complete the road within two years—and are to receive the State bonds appropriated to this road, amounting to about $400,000—and the alternate sections of public land donated by the General Government, and allowed to the present stockholders the amounts they have actually paid, in stock of the road when completed.

This arrangement was ratified by the Directors at Gunter's Landing on the 26th of September.—Rome Courier.

The Southern Radicals had a very boisterous and uncomplimentary reception at Cairo last Friday. At a meeting in the Theatre cheers were given successively for the "Southern Loyalists," Andy Johnson and Jeff Davis. Loud and persistent demands were made by persons in the crowd to take down the National Flag, and speech-making was prevented by the continued clamor of the crowd. The Mayor of the city and the police were unavailingly called upon to preserve order. The former came upon the platform and declared that he had no sympathy with the object of the meeting, but recommended the disturbers to "let those fellows have their little meeting by themselves." The St. Louis Democrat charges the Copperheads of Egypt with a design to massacre the Radicals by removing rails from the road above Cairo; but the trap was run into with fatal result by a preceding train.

Any young girl, says the Nashville Union, living in Middle Tennessee, Alabama or Mississippi whose father was killed in battle, and whose means or resources were destroyed by this "cruel war" will be given one year's board and tuition in one of the best Female Colleges in the State of Kentucky, by addressing with references, Cedar Bluff Female College, Woodburn Postoffice, Warren county, Kentucky.

She will not be received as a charity scholar, but one whose father's blood left a double inheritance to his child. Southern papers will please copy.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—General Joseph E. Johnston was in our city on Thursday last, acting in the interests of the Selma & Dalton Railroad Company. He is in fine health and spirits, and we understand speaks hopefully in regard to the early completion of this great railroad connection. He left on Thursday night for the North to perfect the arrangement to secure the necessary means to carry on the work.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIE is the founder of a new Medical System. The practitioners whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with freedom to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggie's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the influence of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggie's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full to ten creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggie's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant. There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This has quality makes the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Eruptions and eruptive diseases are literally exterminated by the disinfectant power of Maggie's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggie's Pills, Dyspeptic and Mucous Pills cure where all others fail. Write for terms, Send, 100 Pills, 100 Salve, and all questions of the skin, Maggie's Salve is the only one. Sold by J. A. CURRY & CO., 110 N. Water Street, New York, Dist. NISBET & VANDERBILT, Jacksonville, Ala. and all Druggists at 25 cts. per box.

CURE FOR CANCERS.

THE CASE OF MR. MASON.

A correspondent in Indiana recently wrote to us to inquire respecting the cure of a cancer by a Mr. Mason, which was published some years since in some of the city papers. The Springfield Republican has been furnished by a subscriber with the following extract from the Milwaukee Free Democrat, which, we presume, will furnish the desired information:

Our attention has been recently called to a cure for cancers, which is of so much importance that we wish to make it known as widely as possible. Some eight months ago Mr. T. B. Mason—who keeps a music store on Wisconsin street, and is a brother of the well-known Lowell Mason—ascertained that he had a cancer on his neck the size of a pea. It was cut out by Dr. Wolcott, and the wound partially healed. Subsequently it grew again, and while he was in Cincinnati on business it attained the size of hickory nut. He has remained there since Christmas under treatment, and has come back perfectly cured. The process is this:

A piece of sticking plaster was put over the cancer, with a circular piece cut out of the centre a little larger than the cancer, and a small circular rim of healthy skin next to it was exposed. Then a plaster made of chloride of zinc, blood root and wheat flour was spread on a piece of muslin of the size of this circular opening and applied to the cancer for twenty-four hours. On removing it the cancer will be found to be burnt into, and appear of the color and hardness of an old shoe sole, and the circular rim outside of it will appear white and parboiled, as if scalded by hot steam. The wound is now dressed, and the outside rim soon separates, and the cancer comes out a hard lump, and the place heals up.

The plaster kills the cancer, so that it sloughs out like dead flesh, and never grows again.—This remedy was discovered by Dr. Fell, of London, and has been used by him for six or eight years, with unvarying success, and not a case has been known of the reappearance of the cancer where this remedy has been applied. It has the sanction of the most eminent physicians and surgeons of London, but has not till recently been used in this country, and many of the faculty, with their proverbial opposition to innovations, look on it with distrust. We saw Mr. Mason at church yesterday, and have since conversed with him and took particular notice of the cleared wound, and can only say, that if the cure is permanent—and, from the evidence of six or eight years' experience, the remedy ought to be universally known. We have referred to this case, because Mr. Mason is well known both here and at the East. The experiment excited much interest in Cincinnati, and we call the attention of the faculty in this State to the remedy. If it is what is claimed for it, this terrible disease will be shorn of most of its terrors.

What We Fought For.

The following elegant paragraph was taken from the Washington Intelligencer:

"Was the war one of false pretenses? We claimed that it was for the preservation of the Union, yet great party contests in excluding ten States from their rightful places in the national Legislature, though they have given every indication of willingness to continue partisans of the Federal Union. We claimed that it was for the maintenance of the Constitution; yet the Constitution is trampled under foot in its essential provisions of equality in the Senate and representation in the House. We claimed that it was for the restoration of the Federal authority; yet the effort is made to convert that authority from a government of law into one of Congressional dictation, by methods defiant of the Constitution.—We claimed that it was to win back our rebellious brethren, and when they had laid down their arms and given every token of submission, much prize of 'guarantees' and 'security for the future,' as if any other security was wanting from American citizens than their good will and prompt obedience to authority. Let us stand by our repeated declarations. Let us keep our pledged faith, and instead of obsequious and complaint, let us instead of denunciation and distrust, let us give the South the right hand of fellowship and restore the broken links in the great brotherhood of States."

The great thundering volcano, Popocatepetl, has recently been explored by a party which reports the crater accessible. Millions of tons of sulphur are lying in there, and in many places in a pure state. It can be carried to the summit of the volcano, and thence to the base of that eternal snow-crowned mountain, at an expense of only fifty cents the hundred pounds. The value of one hundred pounds of sulphur is $20.—The crater is enough to hold several cities, but it is not probable that any will be built there at present.

A special from Detroit says a most horrible affair took place in L'Annoe county.—The wife of Robert Simms, in an outbreak of insanity, seized a razor and deliberately took the lives of three of her children and of herself. She also made an attempt on the life of the fourth by cutting its throat, and it is not expected to recover, though alive at last accounts.

We know a girl, says Punch, who is so industrious that when she has nothing else to do, she knits her brows.

A FOREIGN SENSATION.—The Paris Patrie asserts that the insurrection in Palermo the revolt in Candia; the disturbance in the Ottoman Empire; the agitation in Greece, and even the renewal of the Juari-sts in Mexico, are the effects of a vast plot, formed, and it is believed that a general European conflagration would be the result of the late German war.

Tennessee papers say the corn crop of that State is greater than during any previous year within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN!

A New Era in Medicine!

Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

Let all who can believe facts, and can have faith in evidence, read the following.

Know all men by these presents, That, on the twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Maggell, to me, personally known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations of medicine known as MAGGELL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificate of veridical cures, to the best of his knowledge and belief:

Notary Public,
Wall street, New York.

June 1st, 1866.
Dr. Maggell—I took my pen to write you, on my great relief, and that the pain in my side has left me at last, thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and assure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and to let you will be like it amine.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with chronic dysentery, and have been cured by Dr. Maggell's Pills.
WILSON HARRIS, 211 Third street,
New York, August 7, 1866.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who is pouring molten iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The molten iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to him by him, about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.
My name is John Hardy, I am an Iron Founder. I was badly burnt by hot iron. Now I am well, and can go to work. Let I had no money on my back by two weeks, not a cent. I feel Maggell's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and anyone can now see me at Jackson's Iron Work 24 Avenue.

J. HARDY,
115 Goerick street.

Extracts from various Letters.

"I had no appetite; Maggell's Pills gave me a hearty one."
"Your Pills are marvelous."
"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggell has cured my headache, that was chronic."
"I gave half of one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My maister of a morning is now cured."
"Your box of Maggell's Salve cured a sore in the head. I rubbed some of your salve behind my ears, and the noise is gone."

"Send me two boxes. I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials
As this, but want of space compels me to conclude.

BY-LAWS AND ORDINANCES
OF THE
Town Council of Jacksonville

By laws for the government of the Intendant & Council of the Town of Jacksonville, a Corporation created under the provisions of title 4, & Part 1st of the Code of Alabama:

1st. This Corporation shall consist of an Intendant & five Councilmen.

2d. There shall be a Treasurer and Secretary elected annually, at the first meeting after the installation of the new board, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the number of Councilmen.

3d. The Council shall proceed at the first meeting after the qualification of the new board, or as soon thereafter as practicable, to elect a suitable person to fill the office of Marshal.

4th. Any member may be removed at any time by a vote of two thirds of a lawful quorum of the Councilmen.

5th. The Intendant shall preside at all meetings of the Council, try all parties accused and legally brought before him according to the charge & penalties as set forth in said ordinances of the town; state all questions in cases of the casting vote, and perform all other duties consistent with the requirements of his office, and consonant with the laws of the State.

6th. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to receive a proper record of the proceedings of the Council, to keep, meeting, and to return each subsequent meeting for consideration of the Council, which, after approval, shall be a part of the corporation ordinance; and for failure to discharge these duties may be removed at any time by a lawful vote of the Council.

7th. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive and receipt for all moneys, notes or other claims, due the corporation, paid into his hands, or placed in his possession, and to pay out the same by and with the consent of the Council and approval of the Intendant, and for failure to discharge the same may be removed at any time by a lawful vote of the Council.

8th. The Councilmen shall be required to attend all meetings, vote on all questions and perform all other duties devolving upon them and shall not speak on any one question more than twice without permission of the Intendant, and for failure to comply with these requirements shall incur, for good cause, be fined not less than fifty (50) cents.

9th. The Marshal shall be required to enforce all police laws, execute all ordinances, assess and collect all taxes and pay the same into the treasury and perform all other duties that may be prescribed at any meeting of the Council, for the better police of the town, and for failure shall be fined not less than two (2) dollars for each failure and be liable to removal from office.

10th. The Intendant shall receive three (3) dollars for each case tried by him in compensation for his services.

11th. The Marshal shall receive five hundred dollars per year, to be paid quarterly, in full compensation for his services.

M. J. TURNLEY,
Intendant.

ORDINANCES

Offences against the Public Peace.

1st. Be it further Ordained, That if any person or persons shall be guilty of an affray, or an assault and battery where no weapons are used, the person or persons so offending shall be fined in the sum of five (5) dollars; if an affray or an assault and battery with sticks, staves, rocks, brickbats, or other missiles thrown by the hand, each offender shall be fined twenty five (25) dollars.

2d. Be it further Ordained, That if any person shall disturb the peace of the Town by loud hallooing, swearing, or any obscene or black-guard language or by gambling with horses or men on the square, or along the streets, or shall suffer his horse or mule to run at large through the streets, he shall be fined for the first offence four (4) dollars, and for every succeeding offence six (6) dollars.

3d. Be it further Ordained, That any person who shall be guilty of any mischief, such as removing signs, turning over or displacing graves, throwing barbed wire or across the streets or alleys or on the public square; or such as molesting or injuring in any way public buildings, or property, the premises or property of any person; or who shall disturb the peace of the public, or in private families by running high the streets with wagons, carts, buggies or carriages, or any contrivances to make a noise, or by singing, or beating on a drum, tin pan or any other thing; or by throwing a stone or trumper or other instrument ringing bell or bells shall upon conviction thereof be fined ten (10) dollars.

4th. Be it further Ordained, That if any person shall be guilty of rolling his wagon or cart or any other vehicle over a sidewalk or alley after nine o'clock at night the offender shall be fined five (5) dollars.

5th. Be it further Ordained, That if any person shall shoot any gun or pistol within two hundred yards of any dwelling house he shall be fined three (3) dollars for the first offence and five (5) dollars for every succeeding offence on the same day, provided that shooting bees, autumn fairs for pork, or firm, under the command of a military officer, are not included under this ordinance.

6th. Be it further Ordained, That any person who shall intentionally disturb any assembly of citizens, or persons who have met for the purpose holding religious worship, singing, attending religious shows or exhibitions, lecture, or musical or entertainment, or for any other legitimate purpose; either by making noise, hallooing, singing, whistling, or any other way, shall upon conviction thereof be fined twenty (20) dollars.

Offences against Public Decency and Morality.

7th. Be it further Ordained, That if any person shall expose his person in an indecent manner on or around the public square, or along the streets, he shall be fined five (5) dollars.

8th. Be it further Ordained, That if any person shall sell, give away, or otherwise dispose of spirituous or vinous or fermented liquors on Sunday, except for medical purposes, the person so offending shall be fined five (5) dollars.

9th. Be it further Ordained, That any person who shall suffer his or her dead horse, mule, cow, hog, or dog to remain two (2) days, after notice given, within one-fourth of a mile of any dwelling house, he or she shall be fined five (5) dollars and expenses of removing the same.

10th. Be it further Ordained, That any person in charge of a ferry or wagon who shall unload the same on Sabbath day, shall be arrested by the marshal, and kept in custody until Monday morning, then be brought before the Intendant and fined five (5) dollars.

11th. Be it further Ordained, That persons found guilty of gaming shall be fined ten (10) dollars.

12th. Be it further Ordained, That any person or persons keeping a house or houses of ill fame, shall upon conviction thereof be fined twenty five (25) dollars.

Miscellaneous Offences.

13th. Be it further Ordained, That any person who shall sell, give or deliver any spirituous, vinous or fermented liquors to any minor under the age of eighteen years, or to any other person or the use of such minor, without the consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, shall be fined twenty (20) dollars, one fourth of which shall go to the minor.

14th. Be it further Ordained, That if any person shall encamp with his wagon on the public square, or on the property of any person without consent of the owner, he shall be fined five (5) dollars.

15th. Be it further Ordained, That no person shall obstruct or encumber the public square, the streets, sidewalks or alleys, the side ditches or water ways. The side walks of the principal streets shall be kept open and free from all obstruction except open porches eight feet from the line. All other streets and alleys shall be kept sufficiently clear of obstructions for wagons to pass without hindrance. The side ditches and water ways shall be kept sufficiently open to allow the water to pass at all times without being diverted from its course. Any person making or causing a y such obstruction, who shall allow them to remain after being notified by the Marshal to remove them (except for a reasonable time in building or improving) shall be fined from three to twenty (3 to 20) dollars, and expenses of removal by that officer, whose duty it shall then become to remove all such obstructions. No person shall erect or put up a pavilion or canvass on the public square, or in the streets, for the purpose of exhibiting a circus or other show, with or without permission from the town council, under a penalty of forty (40) dollars for each day such pavilion is kept up.

16th. Be it further Ordained, That if any person shall willfully ride, lead, or drive his horse, mule or ox up any of the shade trees, he shall be fined three (3) dollars for the first offence and five (5) dollars for each subsequent offence on the same day.

17th. Be it further Ordained, That goats running at large on the public square shall be considered a nuisance and the owner of any goats suffering them to run at large, shall be fined for the first offence three (3) dollars and for each succeeding offence five (5) dollars.

Mode of Proceeding and Trial.

18th. Be it further Ordained, That when any person violates any of these ordinances, it shall be the duty of the Marshal to arrest him or her without warrant and forthwith carry the offender with such witness as he can find before the Intendant, whose duty it shall be to fine the offender according to the offence and penalties as set forth in these ordinances.

19th. Be it further Ordained, That if any person shall be guilty of contempt while the Intendant is engaged in the trial of any case he shall be fined five (5) dollars.

20th. Be it further Ordained, That if any man when summoned by the Town Marshal shall fail or refuse to assist that officer to arrest persons violating these ordinances, or if any person fail or refuse to attend as a witness before the Intendant, he shall be fined five (5) dollars.

21st. Be it further Ordained, That persons arrested after nine o'clock at night for breaches of the peace or disorderly conduct, shall be kept in custody by the Marshal until 9 o'clock the ensuing morning, at which time that officer shall bring them before the Intendant for trial.

22d. Be it further Ordained, That when any person is arrested during the illness or absence of the Intendant, it shall be the duty of any two members of the Council in town at the time to try the case and discharge or punish such accused person according to these ordinances.

23d. Be it further Ordained, That any person arrested for a breach of these ordinances may go before the Intendant or any member of the Council and plead guilty, and be discharged upon payment of the proper fine, without trial.

24th. Be it further Ordained, That in all cases of fining, the Intendant shall have power to weigh any mitigating circumstances and remit a part or all of the fine accordingly.

25th. Be it further Ordained, That all offenders failing or refusing to pay the fines imposed by these ordinances shall be required to labor on the streets of the town at one (1) dollar per day, under the control and direction of the Marshal, until said fines are satisfied; or may contest judgement before Intendant and give bond and security for the payment of the same within thirty days after conviction of said offence. The provisions of this ordinance shall be such that board of the offender shall be deducted from his daily wages.

26th. Be it further Ordained, That no person shall be permitted to retail spirituous liquors within the limits of the corporation, without first procuring a license, and that for said license he shall pay a tax of five hundred (500) dollars.

27th. Be it further ordained, That after the publication of these ordinances, every pauper, vagrant, idle, or disorderly person, of evil life or ill fame, every person who has no visible means of support, and no fixed place of abode, every person whose conduct may be suspicious, and every person who loiters about the streets or other public places, found in the Town of Jacksonville, shall be arrested and ordered to leave the town; and if after the expiration of twenty-four hours such persons shall be found in the town, he or she shall be fined in the sum of twenty (20) dollars.

28th. Be it further ordained, That the Marshal shall be authorized to procure a chain and establish a chain-gang for the purpose of enforcing these ordinances.

29th. Be it further ordained, That the Marshal until otherwise ordered, shall act as overseer and superintendent of the working of the streets, and that whenever the Intendant and Council may require the streets to be worked, shall give two days notice, either in person or writing left at the place of their abode, to all persons of whom labor may be required, to meet at such time and place as he shall designate, and to bring such tools as he may direct. And if any person so summoned fail to attend and perform the services required, or send a substitute to work in his place, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one (1) dollar, for every day of such failure, recoverable in the name of the Town of Jacksonville, before the Intendant's courts. On failure to pay the judgment of the court, for such forfeiture, such person may be imprisoned in the town goal one day for each day of failure, and he liable to the judgment of the court and all the cost attendant upon such imprisonment, for which execution may issue as in other cases.

30th. Be it further Ordained, That all ordinances heretofore adopted contravening these are hereby repealed.
